INTRODUCTION

Gathering the data for this list of descendants has been a tremendous but, nevertheless, interesting job. In M.L. Montgomery's HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL ANNALS OF BERKS COUNTY published in 1909, about two columns are devoted to the "Bavers." Most of those referred to are no longer with us, so I thought the time was due to compile this list. This urge was kindled by my father's notes which I have in my possession. He knew quite a number of the former generation of our family, and I can remember accompanying him and mother on many visits from Wessnersville, where we resided until I was about twelve years old, to Windsor and Perry Townships and to the Molino and Pinedale sections of Schuylkill County to enlarge his acquaintances with the Baver descendants. He had also collected numerous newspaper clippings about the family.

Securing some leads from my father's notes, I started to contact Baver descendants soon after my father's death in 1943 by personal visitations and by correspondence to get more data to compile this lineage. I also spent numerous days at the headquarters of the Berks County Historical Society in Reading, which proved very profitable in securing the ancestry of Christopher Bewer. It was not until recently that I discovered who Christopher's grandfather was. Numerous cemeteries in Berks and Schuylkill Counties were also visited.

Among the Baver descendants are approximately 650 that are also descendants of the Fochts, and approximately 250 that are also descendants of the Stitzels.

Since this information was secured over a period of years, some of the addresses of the people are undoubtedly no longer correct. Not all of the information was secured first hand, but from helpful relatives, and may, therefore, contain errors here and there. If you discover any errors and can make the correction, or should you be able to supply any of the missing data in this history, kindly inform me of the same.

CHRISTOPHER BEWER'S ANCESTRY

The surname "Baver" has been spelled in various ways in former years and helps to confuse matters. The name "Bewer" was changed to "Baver" as recently as the 1880's. On the tombstone of Joel Baver, who died in 1880, the name is still spelled "Bewer," while on his father, Joseph's, who died in 1898, and on his mother's, who died in 1890, it is spelled "Baver."

On the revised constitution of the Lenhartsville Church, adopted in 1880, are the signatures of my great-grandfather, Samuel, and of my grandfather, John B.F. Samuel spelled his name "Bewer" and John spelled it "Baver," and these two were father and son respectively.

However, the German spelling of "Bewer" is just about the same as we would spell "Baver" in English. Also consider the spelling of "Bebert" and "Böberths" with a silent "h" in the latter.

This genealogical list is the practically complete list of descendants of Christopher Bewer and his wife, Susanna Elizabeth (Boyer) Bewer. However, before going any further, let us trace the ancestry of Christopher. His grandfather was Johann Christoffel Bauer, who was one of the Palatinates imported in the ship Samuel, Hugh Percy, Master, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes in Great Britain. Qualified August 17, 1731.⁽¹⁾ Even though the surname is spelled "Bauer," the middle name "Christoffel" is convincing that this Johann is the grandfather of the Christopher whose descendants are listed in this book. I am also convinced that the Johann Christoffel Bauer referred to above and the Johannes Bebert (mentioned below) are one and the same person for reasons which follow.

The following is a reference from page 605 of a transcript from the records of the Orphans Court of Berks County from 1752 to 1792, which is on micro-film in the Berks County Historical Society:

Witness - Mathias Loy, Balser Gerlach, Michael Smith

Mem. filed with the will, Jan. 9, 1754. John Bevert died about 5 years ago possessed of a estate of about £40 or £50 near Maxatawny. He left a widow, Anna Delia, who intermarried with Jacob Granoble about 4 years ago - and 4 children.

Mem. Jan. 25, 1754 This brought to me as a copy of John Bebert's will (of a tract of land not erected into a township, near Maxatawny) by Annadelia, wife of Jacob Grenoble who was the widow of said Bebert. Catharine who married Adam Straub is a child by a former venter. There are 3 other children by a former venter.

Anna Delia says the said Bebert gave them all their portions before marrying her. Her children are Elizabeth Margaret about 18 years old. Conrad about 16, Magdalena about 11 - Henry 7. The former children are Catharina, John, Sarah, Mary.

In the above reference you will note two different spellings again. The reference to a son by the name of Conrad is significant, and bearing in mind that Conrad had a son Christophel, convinces me that Johann Christoffel Bauer is the Johannes Bebert referred to.

On page 226 of the same reference is a transcript of the will of Jacob Cranople, who married Johannes Bebert's widow. The following is the transcript:

JACOB CRONOPLE, Greenwich 12/21/1762 - 5/12/1777

Vol. 2 - 292 To Stepson Conrad Beaber my Est. where I now live for £50. As follows - To his sister Lisa Margreth £10 and to my dau Mary £10 & cows. To son Lawrence £15 - To son Henry £15 - also provide for wife Odilia. - Conrad Beaver, Ex. Test. signed and wit. by Jacob Leiby, Christian Henry, and George Haws.

According to the above references Conrad had two sisters and a brother, and three half-sisters and a half-brother, all eight children, however, having the name of Baver (Bebert).

Johannes Bebert died near Maxatawny about 1749, and when the widow presented the memorandum, dated January 25, 1754, she states that Conrad was sixteen years old. Thus, Conrad was born about 1738.

The following is a copy (in German) of the will of Conrad Böberths (April 22, 1784) found in Will Book 1780 - 2 - 1811:

In dem Namen der Allerheiligsten Dreieinig Keit Gottes der Vater und der Sohn und der Heiligen Geistes. Amen.

CONRAD BOBERTHS

Vol. 2 A, p. 67

In the above will Conrad refers to his plantation located in Greenwich Township. This is probably the same property referred to in his step-father, Jacob Cronople's will and which Conrad received for £50. He also mentions his five sons and two daughters: Heinrich, Jarg (George), Christophel, Christian, Johannes, Magdalene, and Catharina. He also states that his wife is to retain possession of the farm as long as she remains a widow. In case she remarries she is to have only one-third of his estate.. That she did remarry is evidenced by the following copy of a deed whereby she and her second husband, Michael Hartman, convey the property to a John Wisser.

COPY OF DEED

Know all men by these presents that Michael Hartman and Margaret his wife (late Margaret Bebert) widow relect of Conrad Bebert deceased for and in consideration of the sum of fifty pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania to them the said Michael Hartman and Margaret his wife (late Margaret Bebert) well and truly in hand paid by John Wisser the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged. Have remised, released and forever quit claimed and by these presents do remise and forever quit claim unto the said John Wisser all and all manner of dower and right and title of Dower, whatsoever which we the said Michael Hartman and Margaret Hartman (late Margaret Bebert) now have may, might or should have or of Right out to have out of the Tenement messuage and tract of land situated in Greenwich Township, in the County of Berks and state of Pennsylvania adjoining lands of Henry Yerg, Christopher Kremer and others containing 193 A. and allowance and which was belonging to the said Conrad Bebert (late husband of said Margaret) at any time during the converture between him and the said Margaret Hartman (late Margaret Bebert) and also all manner of actions and writ of Dower whatsoever to have and to hold unto him the said John Wisser his heirs and assigns forever.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this twentieth day of March A.D. 1797.

This farm of Conrad Boberths is located southwest of Schucker's School in Greenwich Township. This school is about 100 yards west of the Kutztown-Kempton Highway. Just beyond the school a road turns off to the left. The first farm beyond the left turn is the place referred to, although it hardly contains the original acerage of 125 acres referred to in the will. According to legend from my grandfather, Conrad is buried in an unmarked grave close to the southwest corner of the barn where a grain shed used to stand.

His tombstone, that once marked his grave, was used to build the house on the next farm along this same road. The present owner is Warren Berger. The previous owner, Edgar Greenawald, remembers seeing the stone and told me that it is located at the southwestern corner of the main part of the house and about the height of the porch roof. The main part of the house, of course, is stone and Mr. Greenawald had the house plastered.

Conrad Boberths' name appears on the tax lists of Greenwich for a number of years. The following are the spelling, some of the years, the tax, and the assessment, respectively:

BAWER, CONRAD	1755	4
BAVER, CONRAD	1767	100 acres, 2 horses, 2 cattle, 2 sheep
BEBER, CONRAD	1768	100 acres, 2 h., 2 c., 2 h.
BEBER, CONRAD	1779	125 acres, 2h., 2 c.
BIEBER, CONRAD	1780 - 1784

In the spring of 1756 a company of volunteers was formed by the frontier inhabitants of Berks and Northampton Counties.... It was called the "Maxetani and Allemangel Freyer Wacht" Company (the Maxatawney and Allemangel Independent Guard). It consisted of 24 men who served 39 days from April 3 to May 11. ...

The company was formed so "dass sie auf ihren Plaetzen aushilten und also die Sommer* Frucht aussaehen konten; also ihre Fensen repairen, woran die Companie auch behilflich gewessen." The above quotation was published in Sauer's Germantown paper on December 25, 1756 together with an account of their solicitations and disbursements by Jacob Levan of Levan's Mill at Eaglepoint.

The above quotation is taken from page 81 of the three volume HISTORY OF LEHIGH COUNTY. Conrad Bauer is listed among the 24 men.

Legend has it that some of the neighbors, among them Conrad, had seen a group of Indians stealing toward the buildings. One of them went into the house and got a gun and numerous shots were fired in the direction of the Indians. Finally, Conrad asked to have the gun. He fired a shot and the Indians hurriedly fled.

Conrad Beaver is listed in the Pa. Archives, 3rd series, Volume 6, page 301 with Captain Smith's Company with Berks County Soldiers Who Fought in the Revolution.

The following table is a list of the descendants of Johannes Bebert, up to and including Christophel:

1. Johannes Bebert (-1749) and his 2nd wife, Anna Delia _____
children by a former marriage	children with Anna Delia
1. Catherine	1. Elizabeth Margaret
2. John	2. Conrad
3. Sarah	3. Magdalena
4. Mary	4. Henry
2. Conrad Boberths (1738 -) married Margaret Eckenrodt
1. Heinrich
2. Jarg (George)
3. Christophel
4. Christian
5. Johannes
6. Magdalene
7. Catharina

As stated before, this genealogical list which follows later includes only the descendants of Christophel, so you can see that a tremendous job still remains undone.

CHRISTOPHER BEWER

Christopher's name appears on the tax lists of Windsor Township for a number of years, as follows:

Christopher Be a ber ⁽¹⁾	1810
Christopher Beaber	1820	$2.40
Christopher Beaver	1831	1.34
Christopher Baver	1840	2.75

It is said that Christopher was apprenticed to Valentine Boyer of Alsace Township to learn the trade of a blacksmith. This is, of course, as his father, Conrad, directed in his last will and testament when he stated that his sons should be apprenticed to a diligent craftsman, so that they might learn a trade. In his will (pages 3 and 4) he says: "So sollen sie durch meine Executors zu einem solchen meister zu verbinden der tuchtig ist dieselben in seinem handwerk wohl zu unterrichten, und zu arbeit lassen." It is here that he met his future wife, Susanna Elizabeth Boyer, who was the daughter of Valentine and Elizabeth (Kien) Boyer. Her grandfather was Jacob Kühn, as is evidenced from a transcript of his will which follows:

(1) From the original tax lists of Berks Co. His name appears just as printed above (Be~~a~~ber) with the "a" crossed out.

JACOB KÜHN, Reading 9/17/1793 - 11/12/1793⁽¹⁾

B 327 Provides for wife Susanna. To 4 sons Jacob, John, Peter, George £300 which is due from Martin Rothermel for the plantation and grist mill I sold him. To each of my 9 children viz: Jacob, John, Peter, George, Anna Maria wife of Theobold Haberacker, Susanna wife of Jacob Smeck, Elizabeth wife of Valentine Boyer, Catharine wife of Adam Gerret, and Magdalene £200.

Two sons of Christopher, Samuel (No. 1) and Joseph (No. 1) died young and so later sons were given these same names. This was not unusual in those times, as other genealogies mention such incidents also.

On Christopher's tombstone on the cemetery at Zion's Church, Windsor Castle his date of death is given as March 3, 1863. In the March 21, 1863 issue of the Berks and Schuylkill Journal it states that he died in Windsor Township on the 4th instant, aged 87 years.

* * * * *

Reference has been made to the Revolutionary record of Conrad Beaver. As to those of you who are also Focht descendants, John George Focht was Captain of the 4th Co. of the 1st Battalion, Berks Co. militia, May 17, 1777. (Pa. Archives, 5th series, Vol. 5, p. 162.) John George Focht was the grandfather of Mrs. Joseph Baver (No. 8) and of Mrs. Samuel Baver (No. 9). He was also the father of Hannah Focht, wife of Johannes Bewer (No. 2). This may be of interest to any of you who contemplate joining the D.A.R. (Daughters of the American Revolution) or the S.A.R. Membership in these two organizations and also in the Pennsylvania German Society is strictly confined to lineal descendants. Also since Johann Christoffel Bauer is listed in PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN PIONEERS, a publication of the Pennsylvania German Society, this genealogy will be very convenient in tracing your ancestry.

(1) p. 516 - Transcript of the records of Orphans Court on micro-film in the Berks Co. Hist. Soc.

HOW TO USE THE FOLLOWING TABLE

You will notice that the numbers are arranged in two columns, and for convenience let us refer to them as the "outer column" and the "inner column." The inner column lists the person under the names of his or her parents. So with the exception of No. 1, Christopher Bewer, each name and number appear in both columns.

Suppose you wish to find your lineal ancestors. First, refer to the index and find your name. The number following it refers to the number in the table and not to a page. Having found your name in the inner column, you will find your parents' names directly above it in the outer column. The first one of your parents listed is the Baver lineage. Second, note the number of your parents and find this number in the inner column farther front in the book. Directly above this in the outer column is the name of your father's or your mother's parents, which, of course, will be your grandparents. Continue with this same method until you have reached No. 1.

Example: Larry A. Baver wishes to trace his ancestry. The index will reveal his number to be 746. He finds No. 746 in the inner column and directly above in the outer column is No. 330, his father, Arlan E. Baver. He must now find No. 330 in the inner column and directly above it in the outer column is No. 104, Arlan's father or Larry's grandfather, Elmer D. Baver. Repeating the same process, finding No. 104 in the inner column, he finds No. 24 above it in the outer column. This is his great-grandfather, Alfred F. Baver. Continuing again he comes to No. 8, his great-great-grandfather, Joseph Baver, and finally to No. 1, Christopher Baver.

DESCENDANTS OF CHRISTOPHER BEWER

1. Christopher Bewer (6/14/1777 - 3/5/1863) m. Susanna Elizabeth Boyer (1/6/1787 - 1/25/1865) d. of Valentine & Elizabeth (Kien) Boyer. She was born in Alsace Twsp. THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has evolved through various stages of development. The early years were marked by exploration and settlement, followed by a period of rapid expansion and industrialization. The American Revolution and the Civil War were pivotal moments in the nation's history, shaping its identity and values. The 20th century brought significant social and political changes, including the rise of the American Dream and the challenges of the Cold War.

The American Revolution was a turning point in the nation's history. It was a struggle for independence from British rule, fought between 1775 and 1781. The revolution led to the creation of the United States Constitution, which established the framework for the nation's government. The Civil War, fought between 1861 and 1865, was a conflict over the issue of slavery. It resulted in the abolition of slavery and the preservation of the Union.

The 20th century was a period of great change for the United States. The American Dream, the idea that anyone can achieve success through hard work and determination, became a central theme in American culture. The Cold War, a period of tension between the United States and the Soviet Union, shaped the nation's foreign policy and military strategy.

KILLED UNDER HIS TEAM

Auctioneer Stitzel's Death Near His Home

The following newspaper story was given to me by Mrs. Carl Keusher, the victim's granddaughter.

Shoemakersville - Jacob A. Stitzel, farmer and auctioneer, living 1-1/2 miles above town, on the old Weidman farm, met with a horrible death while hauling posts.

Mrs. Jacob Boyer and Mrs. Samuel Madeira, who live at the Five Locks, where the accident happened, heard the rattling of a wagon and the screams of children, ran out of the house and saw two children, aged about 9 and 11 years, sitting on the top of a load of posts, drawn by runaway horses, with no driver.

This fearful sight lasted only a moment, for the flying horses rounded a curve, upset the load, crossed the canal bridge, where they lost the hind part of the wagon, which ran into the canal, while the frightened animals kept on at a mad pace down the towpath toward their home. The front part of the wagon and lines became entangled, which finally stopped the horses.

The families of Mr. Madeira and Mr. Boyer ran to the rescue of the children and the horses, not knowing where Mr. Stitzel was. The children were extricated with difficulty from under the posts. The whole heap lay upon the edge of the precipice overlooking the canal. Both children escaped without serious injury.

After the children and horses were cared for a search was made for Mr. Stitzel, who was found unconscious about a square above where the road crosses the canal, immediately above the Five Locks flag station on the P. S. V. road. He was picked up and carried to a house where he died in half an hour without regaining consciousness.

Dr. J. B. Potteiger of Hamburg was summoned, but Mr. Stitzel was already beyond relief. The horses were always considered safe and whatever induced them to run away is only a matter of conjecture, but it is believed that one or more posts slid ahead and struck the horses which caused the accident.

Mr. Stitzel leaves a widow

ADELINE BAVER

In the older part of the Belleman's Church Cemetery in the 2nd row from the wall stands a marker which reads thus: "Zum audenken an Adeline Bawer. Sie war geboren den 15 Moi A.D. 1838 wurde gemardet den 7 October A.D. 1857. Ulter 19 Yahr, 4 monat, und 22 dag. Leichen text: Psalm 90 ferc 12." (In memory of Adeline Bawer. She was born May 15, 1838 and was murdered October 7, 1857. Age 19 years, 4 months, and 22 days. Funeral text: Psalm 90 verse 12.)

The following excerpts from the Berks and Schuylkill Journal about the murder of Adeline Bewer are through the courtesy of Arthur G. Schuman, 1214 Oley St., Reading. Mr. Schuman has many notes concerning this incident.

Sat., Oct. 10, 1857 - Supposed Murder Of A Young Woman

The body of a young woman was found on Thursday (Oct. 8) morning, in the water under Irish Creek Bridge, on the line of the Reading Railroad, near Mohrsville. Her throat was cut, and it is the general belief, from the nature of the wound that she was murdered.

The unfortunate victim proves to have been Miss Adeline Bavor, a young lady of about 21 years, well and favorably known in the neighborhood where she resided. She had left her home the same morning on foot, to visit some of her friends intending to go on then to the Agricultural Fair at Reading. Nothing more was seen of her till the body was found as stated.

The matter is undergoing an investigation before Esquire Clouser of Mohrsville.

Besides the cutting of the throat, there were two stabs in the breast. The young woman is supposed to have been murdered for her money and the jewelry she had on. The tragedy caused a great excitement among the people, but no clue to the murderer has been found.

Nov. 21, 1857 - The Mohrsville Murder

Considerable excitement was occasioned in the early part of the week by the arrest of two individuals at Mohrsville named Patrick O'Neal and Charles Beatzel, on suspicion of being concerned in the murder of Adeline Bavor. They were brought to this city and lodged in jail until Thursday afternoon when a searching examination was commenced before Alderman Mengle which occupied several hours. The Examination was continued yesterday afternoon and last evening, and although a number of witnesses were heard nothing was elicited calculated to implicate them, and they were discharged accordingly. We understand a warrant has been issued for a man in Schuylkill County, upon whom suspicion has fallen, and that an officer will be dispatched today to arrest him. We hope that the mystery which surrounds the case will yet be solved and the guilty parties brought to justice.

(The name of the person arrested was Samuel Heilner from Minersville.)

April 3, 1858 - The Mohrsville Murder, More Developments

Some boys pulled a bundle containing a white linen shirt and a coarse undershirt, out of a tree. Upon examination, both arms of the shirt were saturated with blood and blood spots were on other places. These articles of clothing were pulled out of a hollow tree about four feet from the ground near the place where the murder is supposed to have occurred Oct. 7, 1857. The shirts were sent to J. K. McKenty, Esq., District Attorney.

Nov. 28, 1857

The Minersville Workingman's Advocate is very severe on Fisher for his arrest of Heilner. It says he relied on the miraculous circumstance that after a long prayer to Heaven to enlighten him as to the person who killed Miss Baver, the figure of Samuel Heilner rose before his imagination. It is further said that Heilner's aged mother was very much distressed at the arrest for the heinous crime, and that her life was at one time in danger. His family has been put to a great deal of trouble and expense on account of it. Fisher should have had something better than spiritual manifestations to back him up. He appears bent on obtaining the reward of $500.00 offered by the Commissioners, as it was understood at the Alderman's office, that before the case of Heilner was decided, he had pitched upon another individual as the guilty party. Up to the present, however, no new arrests have been made.

The paper reported that she was a daughter of David and his wife Catherine, nee Fisher. However, who this David Bewer was I do not know. Christopher had a son named David, but he was married to Mary Miller. It is my idea that Adeline was a niece of Christopher.

The body was interred last from the house of her uncle, Mr. Fisher. This is the Mr. Fisher referred to in the last newspaper article which I have quoted.

Legend has it that one of the suspects denied he had any part in the act and hoped the Good Lord would take his life immediately if he had done it. Shortly afterward he was killed while, as a brakeman, he was coupling cars on the railroad. Another of the suspects is to have fallen from the hayloft into a hay-fork which caused a lingering death. Because of this injury he could not die until he had confided to an intimate friend that he had taken part in the act.
